

CRITICAL RISK CONTROL MASTERCLASS SERIES 2023

PROGRAM

November 27: Workshop 1 - Fundamentals of good critical control implementation

| Time | Topic | Who |
|-----------------|--|-------------------------------|
| 9:00am-9:15am | Introduction | Maureen Hassall |
| 9:15am-10:45am | Exercise 1: CCRM maturity and SWOT exercise [60min with 30min debrief] | All |
| 10:45am-11:15am | MORNING TEA | All |
| 11:15am-12:15pm | History and founding philosophies behind CCRM [Interactive presentation] | Maureen Hassall |
| 12:15pm-1:00pm | LUNCH | All |
| 1:00pm-2:00pm | Fatal Risk Management – the next step in Anglo American’s safety journey in Steelmaking Coal [40min presentation followed by Q&A to include input from colleagues Lucy Bellinger, Trent Griffiths and Brendon Glass] | Heather Bell – Anglo American |
| 2:00pm-3:00pm | Exercise 2: Workshopping examples of work done to apply CCRM to a range of critical risks | All |
| 3:00pm-3:30pm | AFTERNOON TEA | All |
| 3:30pm-4:00pm | Brief and discussion of next steps | Maureen Hassall |

November 28: Workshop 2 - The next steps and challenges associated with sustaining zero fatalities

| Time | Topic | Who |
|-----------------|--|--------------------------------|
| 9:00am-9:15am | Introduction | Maureen Hassall |
| 9:15am-10:15am | A decade of CCRM –Rio Tinto’s journey, achievements and future plans [40min presentation followed by Q&A] | Brad Nielson – Rio Tinto |
| 10:15am-11:15am | CCRM and learning from fatal incident history [40min presentation followed by Q&A] | Adam Dargusch BHP |
| 11:15am-11:45am | MORNING TEA | All |
| 11:45am-12:30pm | Innovations from CCRM research – what has happened? [Interactive presentation] | Maureen Hassall |
| 12:30pm-1:15pm | LUNCH | All |
| 1:15pm-2:00pm | Exercise 3: Fully embedding and integrating CCRM [30min with 15min debrief] | All |
| 2:00pm-3:00pm | Applying CCRM more broadly and underpinning it with evidence-based analysis [40min presentation followed by Q&A] | Dr Bobbie Selleck ECU/Em3rgent |
| 3:00pm-3:30pm | AFTERNOON TEA | All |
| 3:30pm-4:00pm | Brief and discussion of next steps | Maureen Hassall |